

THE ICONS

Masters of Disaster

REDICULOUS! Posthumously and minimally released on cassette in 1986, The Icons are back with their obscure classic Masters of Disaster, 14 tracks of 100% pure and mighty rock. The Icons were GMR Prez Tom Dyer's band in 1983-86. The band reunited last summer to play the record release party for It Crawled From The Basement: The Green Monkey Anthology and are in the process of making an all-new record. It is time to give their first its proper release.

Masters of Disaster features the original nine track album plus a recently discovered and finished version of (Half the World is Made of) Women as well as other obscurities. All tracks were remixed from the original 1983 master tapes.

The Icons are all grownups with jobs. They are doing this for the exact same reason as they did the first time; to make a beautiful racket and to believe for one sweet, delusional moment that music matters more than anything else.

The Icons are: Tom Dyer - Guitar, Vocal, etc., Steve Trettevik – ditto, Rick Yust – Bass and singing, James Gascoigne – Drums

This probably isn't going to change your life but it damn well should.
