

THE ICONS

APPOINTMENT WITH DESTINY!

Fact: The Icons = TOTAL ROCK ACTION! On their second release in 25 years, these Seattle Underground Rock Gods slap together an irreverent pile of noisy guitar songs filled with brain-sucking hooks in the tradition of the Pacific Northwest. As raw as The Clash, as stupid as the New York Dolls and as intellectually stimulating as Lou Reed on a really bad day, this ain't for the faint of heart. Guest superstars include Jeff Kelly of the Green Pajamas, multi-instrumentalist indie-star Amy Denio and Glen Slater from the Walkabouts.

Expanding the pandemonium of Green Monkey's reissue of The Icons' 1986 Masters of Disaster, with 16 full songs Appointment with Destiny! delivers the mighty rock and tuneful thrashing you should always expect from these four misguided post-moderns. Have mercy.

The Icons have always made music just for the plain and simple good of it, art for art's sake. But with the release of Destiny!, they are finally on the verge of fame and fortune...Appointment with Destiny! is the Sgt. Pepper's of the 21st Century. They are the walrus.

The Icons are: pretty boys Tom Dyer – Guitar, Vocals and Steve Trettevik – Guitar, Vocals - plus Hades' own rhythm section, James Gascoigne on drums and Rick Yust on bass and vocals. Add it all up and it equals Total Rock Action!

More mighty cool stuff:

- The Destiny! cover and insert features 100% comic art by LA artist Martin Cannon, located by The Icons thru naughty Craig's List!
- Available from Burnside Dist, CD Baby and direct from Green Monkey Records
- GMR website (www.GreenMonkeyRecords.com) features streaming "Album of the Month" with GMR artists and various other fine Northwest goo.

Press for Masters of Disaster:

"...there are lots of young musicians trying to capture this kind of guitar-driven spike-pop sound and not doing it nearly as well."

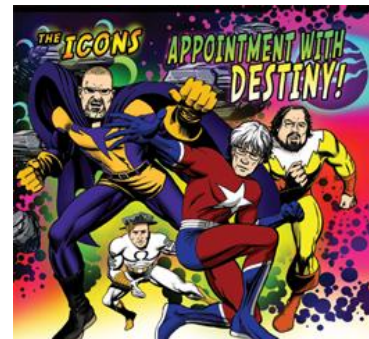

Michael Toland - The Big Takeover, 2009

"...with an attitude and hint of sarcasm that has become one of the (Northwest) region's greatest trademarks..." - John Book - This Is Book's Music, 2009

"... schizoid, irreverent and in-your-face..."

Frank O. Gutch Jr. - Rock and Reprise, 2009
