GLASS PENGUINS, "Raspberry" ($5.99 from Green Monkey Records, PO Box 31983, Seattle, WA 98103): The PR says this is "Prince-meets-the-Monkees pop", and what reviewer could turn down that description? Michael Cox and a collection of musicians from other bands produce some of the most adorable music I've heard in a long time, with lyrics as nutty as any you're likely to hear. I'm particularly fond of "Shadow of a Fish" and "Number or Your Name". Good music well done. (T/MG)
