

GREEN PAJAMA COUNTRY!

Jeff Kelly and the Green Pajamas are usually associated with psychedelic rock, largely because of their paisley-guitar beginnings. So why Country? Why now? Jeff has always had a dalliance with country in his heart and in his music. Some of the songs on this CD date back as far as 1986 to his earliest home-recorded releases on Green Monkey Records, though these are brand new recordings. While most songs are new, they reflect an old-school country sensibility; they would be more at home with Hank and Johnny Cash than much of what you hear on the country charts of today. Father Father Do You Wait recalls the country songs Jeff played with his dad, while the haunting When Good Men Go Bad stands with Kelly's best.

Jeff and bass player Joe Ross have toyed with the idea of this album for ten years. It needed to age. In the last two it finally took shape. It was worth the wait. This is not a gimmick. It is not a marketing ploy. It is just plain good music played from the heart. From its sly opening tribute to the classic westerns to the mournful close, Green Pajama Country is a Classic.

Good to Know

- Pass Me Another Whiskey is the first video from Pajama Country
- The Green Pajamas released The Red, Red Rose, based on the tragic news story of Phoebe Prince in 2010.
- Poison in the Russian Room was named one of the Top 100 releases of 2009 by the London Times.
- In-store play copies available.
- Country is a joint release with Endgame, a quality West Seattle label.
- All-new Green Pajamas album The Queen Bee Is Dead is slated for October 2011 release.
- The Green Pajamas website: www.TheGreenPajamas.net
- GMR website (www.GreenMonkeyRecords.com) features streaming "Album of the Month" with GMR artists and various other fine Northwest goo.

Red, Red Rose Press

"...unsaid and unspeakable anger, remorse and guilt pours out of his guitar. It's beautiful, and it's a shame it ever had to be written." Stephen Haag Popmatters

"A very positive release from a remarkable band." John Book This is Book's Music

"The Red, Red Rose is prime Green PJs, mixing a folk melody with psychedelic rock and poetic lyrics that address Phoebe's tragedy from the point of view of those still grieving." Michael Toland Blurt

Distribution: Burnside Distribution
6635 N. Baltimore Ave.- Suite 285
Portland, OR 97203

Track Listing:

Green Pajama Country (Opening Theme)
Pass Me Another Whiskey
You Had A Way About You
Honky Tonk Girls
Last Night Was Like The End Of The World
Winter Of '23
Deep Water (In The Wires)
Isabelle Blue
Desiree
Father Father Do You Wait
Why Good Men Go Bad
I Just Wish That She'd Love Me
The Night Passed Over Into Day
She's Gone, She's Gone, She's Gone,
Daddy She's Gone
Green Pajama Country (Closing Theme)

Release Date	8/2/11
Format	CD
Wholesale Price CD	$8.15
Catalog Number	GM1009
Suggested List	$12.99
File Under:	Rock/Pop

7 18483-1009-2 5
UPC # 7-18483-10092-5

GREEN MONKEY RECORDS

Underground Seattle Rock 1980 - 2021

GreenMonkey@GreenMonkeyRecords.com www.GreenMonkeyRecords.com 206.713.5810